Carmel & Joseph, Les Terroirs Vieux Carignan 2015 IGP Pays d'Hérault Côtes du Brian

Smells of raw meat, and super-sweet damsons, green pepper and then all the gnarly texture and tannins of old Carignan. But there is a startling and lovely freshness and sapidity to this wine that rises up to meet the intensity of the fruit and the wiry clench of the tannins. This is a wonderful expression of old-vine Carignan. You can feel the story and the life pulsing through. There's a lift and dance and grace that is rarely seen in Carignan.
