

Tamlyn Currin – 30/09/2017

Villa Blanche – Syrah – IGP Oc 2016

Deep aubergine purple. Smoky bacon and dark-purple, sweet fruit. Shiny vibrant palate and a hint of parma-violet sherbet. Supple, easy-going tannins. Simple but immensely drinkable! This would be a fantastic – make that perfect – barbecue wine. It has the gumption and confident, ripe fruit to go with big smoky meat, all the tricky sauces and spices that tend to go with barbecues, as well enough acidity and tannic balance to be refreshing on a hot day. It would work with vegetarian barbecue dishes as well. Stock up for summer! GV (TC)

16/20