

Tamlyn Currin – 1 Sep 2017

Carmel & Joseph Villa Blanche Terret Blanc 2016 IGP Pays d'Oc

On the nose, something of a cross between an unoaked Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc – apples, streaks of thick green pasture grass, mown nettles. Packed with fresh, juicy, chopped apples and white peaches with a handful of lovage thrown in. Cool, cucumber finish, drawn to a sharp, lip-smacking, lemon-laced close. Hint of elderflower. (TC)